

AIA
Baltimore

Firm Member Benefits

Becoming a firm member not only includes the benefits listed below but also directly supports AIABaltimore. The funds received provide assistance towards AIABaltimore programming and events throughout the year.

“Design, construction, and society are constantly changing. To serve society, architects must commit to continual professional growth through learning, innovation, and exploration.”

- AIA Directory of Public Policy and Position Statements

Benefits Include:

Communications

- Your new membership will be announced in the AIABaltimore e-newsletter which has a circulation of over 3300 subscribers.
- You will receive a 20% discount on Classified advertisements for job listings, or other opportunities in the AIABaltimore e-newsletter, and website.
- You will be eligible to publish firm news, and submit project profiles and features on the AIABaltimore website and e-newsletter.
- Your company will be included in the Architectural Firm Listing of our annual print and online membership directory..
- You will be listed as a Firm member on the AIA National “Architect Finder”.
- You will receive regular notification about special announcements, invitations, and opportunities exclusively for architecture firm members.

Support

- Registered CES providers will have the opportunity to conduct continuing education seminars promoted to AIABaltimore members.
- Your firm will receive support for emerging professionals through the AIABaltimore Emerging Professionals Committee, including ARE-prep courses, study sessions, and study materials, hosting opportunities, hands-on workshops, mentorship, licensure incentives, IDP support, CIVICLab leadership training, and scholarships to attend the AIA National Convention.
- Annual and Program sponsorship opportunities.
- You receive a 10% discount on AIA documents and other publications in our Architect’s Bookstore.

Networking

- Networking opportunities with AIABaltimore members, including Firm Happy Hours along with the opportunity to host one to promote your firm.
- Invitations to all Chapter programs (50–60 on average per year) and special events at reduced member
- Opportunities to build knowledge and expertise through participation in over 26 AIABaltimore specialized committees, alongside architects and allied professionals.
- Opportunities for your firm to reserve the AIABaltimore board room, or Gallery/meeting room for exhibits, seminars, lectures, professional programs, and meetings.
- Be eligible for an Associate Society Membership at The Engineer’s Club, with reciprocal membership at over 100 clubs across the country and internationally. For more information go to www.esb.org.